

With the unexpected hot spell of last week appeared the summer girl in all the glory of her new '99 shirt-waist. It was predicted last year that the shirt-waist had seen its best days, and that the best-dressed women would discard them this summer, they having become so common and cheap as to be within reach of everybody; but, on the contrary, they have taken a new lease on life; and are, if anything, more "nobby" and "chic" than ever. Shirt-waists are cool and comfortable; and, well made, are becoming to thin and stout figures alike, so do you wonder the women cling so tenaciously to this style? The plain sailor is still in vogue, but the sweetest hat to be worn with shirt-waists have added scarfs and quills. Be it as it may, the summer girl is here, and the tout ensemble is fetching in the extreme.

There is absolutely nothing, socially speaking, going on in the way of formal entertaining, although a good many pleasant affairs on a small scale help to while away the time.

On Wednesday Mr. Hollis, of New York, entertained a few friends at luncheon in the Monticello Hotel in a most attractive manner. The menu, which consisted of the delicacies of the season, was served in the cafe, and La France roses formed the decoration. Those who accepted the hospitality of Mr. Hollis on this occasion were Misses Mary and Bessie Kimberly, of Old Point, and Mr. Ryan, of Richmond.

Mr. Frank McCullough gave another of his delightful sailing parties on his beautiful sloop yacht the "West Wind" on Wednesday evening. This party was given in honor of Mrs. M. C. Meade, of Petersburg, and was, as is usual with Mr. McCullough's parties, a most delightful occasion. The party, consisting of Miss Bernard, Miss Alice Ramsay, Miss Mary Taylor, Mr. R. C. Taylor, Jr., Mr. Montgomery Osborne, Mr. R. C. Taylor, Mr. Walter Taylor and Mr. McCullough, sailed to Sewell's Point and back, and a delightful supper was served en route.

Miss Sophia Smith gave a very delightful hop on Thursday evening at the New York in honor of her guest, Miss Eugardie, of Philadelphia. Dancing began at half-past eight, and lasted until twelve o'clock, the Naval Post Band furnishing the music.

Among those who were present were: Admiral and Mrs. Parquhar, Miss Parquhar, Mr. and Mrs. Stahl, Captain and Mrs. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Biscoe, Misses Impy, Miss Virginia Wilson, and Mr. Clinton Wise, Dr. Ames, Miss Ames, Captain and Mrs. Niles, Misses Niles, Misses Eugardie, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Misses Smith, Captain Kimberly, of Old Point, Mr. and Mrs. Eugardie, of Philadelphia, Misses Reeves, Miss Isabelle Pigman, Misses Kirt, and Mrs. Mousmouth; Miss Virginia Wilson, of Brooklyn; Misses Neely, Miss Bilsby, Miss Eleanor Huntington, of New York; Dr. Burgess, Mr. Sayles, U. S. N.; Mr. Reynolds, Mr. Todd, Mr. Collins Armistead, Messrs. John and James Hume and Messrs. Winston and Edward Parrish, of Portsmouth; Mr. Trotman and Mr. Carney, of Churchland; Messrs. Goldborough and Albert Serpell, Mr. Washington Taylor, Jr., Mr. William Gresham and Mr. James Johnston, of Norfolk; Messrs. Kirt, of Portsmouth; Mr. Roberts, Mr. Grosbeck and Mr. Sterling, U. S. N.

Miss Marguerite Ames entertained a number of her friends at a supper party on Thursday evening at her home, at the navy yard. After the hop had ended, and with the strains of "Home, Sweet Home" still lingering in their ears, these pleasure-seekers sought something more substantial wherewith to appease the appetite of inner man, and the delectable repast provided by Miss Ames was greatly enjoyed.

Prof. A. Belleza gave the last soiree of the season at the Masonic Temple last evening, which was a most happy and delightful occasion. About twenty-five couples participated in the dancing, which lasted until 11 o'clock, and after the soiree had ended many dainty little suppers were partaken of by those who were present.

It is said the management of the Princess Anne Hotel will open the summer season by giving a ball, which, if carried out, promises to be a gala occasion for Virginia Beach.

The last german of the season will take place on Friday evening at the Chamberlin Hotel. This dance is under the supervision of Mr. R. Worthy Smith, which insures a high standard of the Warden has been chosen to take the party to Old Point. The boat will leave the Bay Line wharf at 8 o'clock, returning at 12.

Very delightful indeed was the party given on Monday evening by Miss Sophia Smith at her home, at the navy yard. This was indeed a delightful occasion, and was given in honor of Miss Eugardie, of Philadelphia, who is Miss Smith's guest. The nature of this affair was a sumptuous party, at each table a different game being played. Miss Impy was most successful among the ladies, and was given a picture as the prize, while to Miss Wilson was awarded the booby—a candlestick. The gentleman's prize, a fleur de lis pin, was won by Mr. Reynolds, and Mr. Porter was given a "day" as the booby prize for the men. Dainty refreshments were then served on the card tables. Miss Smith's guests on this occasion were Miss Eugardie, Mr. and Mrs. Eugardie, of Philadelphia; Miss Virginia Wilson, of Brooklyn; Miss Lillie Pigman, of Port Norfolk; Miss Marguerite Ames, Miss Impy, Miss Susan Lenney, of the navy yard; Misses Bettie and Jane Neely, Miss Ashton, of Portsmouth; Miss Edna Smith, Mrs. Ridgely Farrish, Mr. O'Hara, Mr. Bringham, Mr. James Hume, Mr. James Todd, Mr. Reynolds, Mr. Collins Armistead, Mr. Hart, Mr. William Ridley and Mr. Robert Ridley.

Several house parties were enjoyed at Virginia Beach last week, which added to the attractiveness of that resort. Among those who comprised these parties were Mrs. Jennie Drewry, Miss Mary Leigh, Misses Jane and Lila Tucker, Mrs. Virginia Starke, Miss Elizabeth Winn, Miss Cornelia Tucker, Miss Josephine Cooke and others.

Miss Elizabeth Marsden has returned from a visit to Newport News.

Miss Mary B. Jones is on Monday to visit friends in Washington.

Miss Jane Neely entertained a party of friends on Tuesday evening at her home, on North street, Portsmouth. The occasion was a tea party, and those who were invited were Miss Virginia Wilson, of Brooklyn; Miss Clarke, of Wilmington; Miss Rebecca Nash, Miss Adella Nash, Miss Nancy Butt, and Misses Bettie and Jane Neely.

Miss Virginia Jones is visiting friends and relatives in Suffolk.

Miss Octavia Wills left Thursday, to be the guest of friends on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

Miss Virginia Jordan is at home again, after a charming visit to friends in Elizabeth City, N. C.

Miss Hamilton McCarrick left last week to visit relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Gross, who has been the guest of Miss Reeves, on Freeman street, has returned to her home, in Washington.

Miss Taylor, of Mt. Airy, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Key Compton, on Freeman street, will leave for her home on Monday.

Mrs. Frank Grandy is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Misses Alice and Nan Ramsay will leave this week to visit Miss Taylor at Mt. Airy.

Miss Lily Urquhart, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. William Brooke, on Boush street.

The reception committee at the Country Club yesterday afternoon consisted of Mrs. O. B. Bidwell, Mrs. John Black-
